III. WRITING (10 POINTS)

The emigration of skilled workers is a real problem for their countries of origin. Write an email to the editor of the web site www.globaldebate.org in which you explain why these people emigrate and suggest ways to encourage them to stay in their own countries.

Sender: simo_1925@hotmail.fr

Subject: About the phenomenon of skilled workers emigration.

Dear editor,

Nowadays, most of skilled workers need to leave their countries for a lot of reasons, which drive us to look up and search about the real causes of this serious problem in order to find some solutions to eliminate this crisis.

To begin with, a lot of those skilled workers are poor and come from underdeveloping countries, where there are no chances to improve their skills. More than that, their countries governments don't care about them, they see that there are many other problems to solve more important to those skilled workers. In the other hand, those kind of people feel disappointed, important and sad in the front of this reality. Consequently, they simply emigrate or "run away".

Therefore, the countries of origin should take care of their skilled workers. Their states should set up many projects in order to improve skilled workers abilities and increase the ^{financial} income. Also, sensitizing people about the importance of those skilled workers is advised as a solution.

Finally, skilled workers are like pearls that their countries should consider as an origin and local treasure to keep.

Yours sincerely,
